My dear Sam.

I looked all day yesterday for a telegram from you for I thought you would be in S.F., especially after asking your father to write and know you would be disappointed in not finding us there, but thought my letter would be already there, explaining the reason. Your telegram came early this morn'g and I immediately wired you at Palace as follows: "Deposit Jameson this week if necessary. Otherwise end of next week. Will mail Baggor to Palace but hope to be there by thirtieth." I had written my telegram first for you to use Jameson check this week but on looking at my check book I found that it would leave my balance ridiculously small until I could foot up my account there which I will do by mailing check to Bk of California today. I will send you a check on that Bank for $500 on Baggor account in a few days. This as I must hope to be there by thirtieth.

I was, perhaps, a piece of humanity for my trade "Eagle" as I am still guaranteed here by my physician and Mr. Camham & the Coburn spirit in urging me to stay until the Dr. says "go". I am to see him again tomorrow and do hope that he will set a day not later than ^{middle} ~~end~~ of next week for me to start. His desire has been to learn the exact diet and medicine which will enable me to hold my own or at least waste very gradually for the next few years; and I watch the results of his repeated examinations and tests with considerable interest myself.
 Mamma has been quite reasonably comfortable and very cheerful for some weeks past, although Dr. Rogers the lady physician in Media tells me that she cannot hope to ever be well again. She has been enjoying the wonderful March weather for the last two weeks. With the exception of two days the weather has been perfect April since 20th of Feb. I get down home, as a general thing, only on Sundays and only comes up about 3 days in the week. Edith & Children are quite well as are all at Ed's & in Media - with exception of occasional colds among the children. Our first father W. J. Carey
